

Lisa Wallace - Executive Director

Lisa Wallace is the Executive Director and employee #1 of TRWC. Lisa holds her B.A. in psychology from University of the Pacific. She grew up coming to the Truckee-Tahoe region with her family, and has held a deep appreciation for the region ever since. Lisa moved to Truckee in 1999 as the Director of Restoration Initiatives for the Earth Island Institute. In 2001, an opportunity to become the first staff member of what is now the Truckee River Watershed Council presented itself and Lisa accepted the role. Over the past 20 years, Lisa has helped the Truckee River Watershed council grow its number of staff and deepen its partnerships within the community to get more and more restoration work done. Outside of work you can find Lisa hiking with friends all over the watershed!
